Thank you Thomas. This release covers the depletions caused by your wells through March 2012. We will need to begin making releases once the 2012 irrigation season begins to cover next summers depletions.

Brian,

I was asked to email the following information to you on behalf of the Acres of Ireland Well Owners, LLC.

At the end of our winter water release for 2011, the final meter reading was 1,630,000.

As a reminder, this last summer release needed to see an ending meter reading of 1,227,110 however, upon completion, the final meter reading was 1,250,400, for an excess of 23,290 gallons.

Please let me know if there is any other information you need.

Thomas Kainz,
Secretary – Acres of Ireland Well Owners, LLC

Thomas Kainz
